The Honorable Sinclair Weeks
The Secretary of Commerce
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear Mr. Weeks:

In the Director's absence, I am answering your letter of 12 December 1955 inviting this Agency to participate in the reorganized ACP structure as an observer for national security export control problems. I am gratified that you have found CIA assistance or service in support of your responsibilities under the Export Control Act of 1949.

In response to your invitation to designate representatives and alternates on the Advisory Committee on Export Policy and on the Operating Committee, I wish to advise you that the CIA representatives will be as follows:

Advisory Committee on Export Policy
Dr. Otto S. Guthe, Representative
Mr. Maurice J. Williams, Alternate

Operating Committee

Sincerely,

C. P. Cabell
Lieutenant General, USAF
Acting Director
